

System Operation Contract: updateInventory

Operation:	updateInventory(productID: Integer, shelfQty: Integer, warehouseQty: Integer)
Cross References:	Use Cases: Update Inventory
Preconditions:	The product exists in the database. Inventory levels are defined for the product. New quantities are valid (non-negative integers).
Postconditions:	- Inventory levels for the product were updated in the database (attribute modification). - System automatically triggered the checkMinimumStock operation (operation called). - If stock fell below the minimum threshold: a Low Stock Alert was generated (instance creation). - If stock fell below the minimum threshold: a Supplier Order may have been created (instance creation).